ITEM 1 - COMPETITION

1.1 – Promoters

“Che Cupola!” is an initiative planned by Skené, a multifaceted Cultural Center for Children, and supported by Coloré a social cooperative, and Officinae communication (promoters). It is also part of Illustramente, a festival for Children’s Illustrations.

1.2 – Competition

“Che Cupola!” is an international illustration and drawing contest, conceived with the aim of searching for and promoting young talents through those architectural structures which made great the city of Palermo: i.e. domes. Competitors have to develop their artworks on the base of selected monuments’ original architectural structures (in any case the monument must be recognizable in the competitors’ works).

1.3 – Competitors

This is an international competition open to all. It is also open to students of different age groups as a way to sensitize them towards an observation of the urban context from different points of view (graphic, cultural, architectural, etc..). The competition is also open to operators in the areas of drawing and design, or the “first-timers” (those who intend to pursue professions in this field or who work in other areas, but they have a special artistic talent), and the “professionals” (those who have to their credit at least three published works).

A jury panel will select a maximum of 60 artworks among which will be chosen five category winners and one overall winner.

Participants will be divided into five different categories (3 of which correspond to 3 different students’ age groups), one overall winner and one winner for every category will be announced.

Candidatures will be divided as follows:

Child talent: Primary school.

Young talent: Secondary school.

Budding talent: High school.

Rookies: Non Professional Artists.

Artists: Professional Artists.

1.4 – Property rights

Promoters reserve the right to ownership of participants' artwork, except for commercial purposes. Promoters can publish them online, on social networks, on advertising material, leaflets, and paper and electronic calendars with the aim of promoting "Che Cupola!" (name of the authors will always be mentioned). Authors can publish their artworks on different sites as personal promotional work but they must mention the competition for which it was created.

1.5 – Copyrights

Organizers reserve the right to use artworks to promote the competition and the exhibition, through posters, playbills, on websites, etc.. with the aim to publicize themselves and their work (participants' names will be always mentioned).

Promoters will not use artworks for economic purposes, but in this case they will pay participants suitable compensations (on the base of consensual agreement). In any case, artworks will not be used to promote on behalf of a third party.

ITEM 2 - CONTEST PARTICIPATION PROCESS

2.1 – International context

This context is open to all Italian and foreign citizens, living in Italy or not.

2.2 – Requests to participate

Participants have to fill out the online registration form on the website www.centroculturaleskene.it and www.illustramente.it/checupola where they can upload their works on the promoter's database for a pre-selection.

2.3 – Subscriptions

Participants have to pay a € 25,00 (VAT included) subscription. For instructions on payment of the participation fee, please contact the Organizing Secretariat on +39 347 756 1652.

When payment is credited on this account, registration will be considered complete.

* SCHOOLS

Participation in the competition for schools is free. Institutions of all levels (schools elementary, middle and high) are not in fact required to pay the fee because the event was included in the plan of training of the City of Palermo – Area schools and reality of childhood.

2.4 – Registrations

Requests to participate can be individual or collective (in case of several authors or group of students). In the second case the request to participate must be only one for the entire group. It must be filled out and signed by a teacher (person in charge), which must make sure of parents' consent (in case of underage students) and the name of students' group must be mentioned. In case of co- authors, the request to participate must be only one. The names of the authors which have collaborated must be mentioned. If participant is an underage person, registration form must be filled out and signed by parents.

The organizers will select up to a maximum of five works in each school. They encourage the Teachers responsible for the activities aimed at the participation in the competition, to make a rigorous selection, trying to identify the most talented students and, of course suited to drawing and illustration.

ITEM 3 - REQUIREMENTS AND TECHNICAL FEATURES

3.1 – Originality

Participants have to create previously unshown artworks.

They are responsible for the originality of their artworks and they must guarantee the intellectual property rights of the same.
